- 84% of the email traffic this year will be spam

Your task:

Using the provided template:

- Get acquainted with your client and their products
- Create a database, consisting of 20 (total) potential clients and partners
- Develop a communication plan (weekly based) for conducting an email campaign for each audience
- Create 2 different email messages targeted at the defined audiences. They could promote the business (image or product) or inform users about the products and their unique qualities

Your client:

WBE (White Board Elephant) Studio offer different type of animated videos, created especially for the client's needs. They want to promote their services in Hungary and attract new clients. Their target audiences are:

- medium sized enterprises who can become their clients
- advertising agencies who can become their partners
